UAS International Trip Support has been delivering award-winning, customized global flight support solutions since 2000. Born of the dream of four aviation entrepreneurs to make even the most remote stations accessible, UAS has become a comprehensive one-stop shop for all aviation needs and is trusted by Heads of State, VVIPs, Fortune Global 500 companies, and business jet operators worldwide. In 2016, UAS marked a historic milestone when it entered a partnership with Asian premier business aviation group Deer Jet, a subsidiary of the Fortune Global 500 HNA group, to significantly accelerate its growth and expansion plans. UAS is a global market leader taking care of all flight support, executive travel, and air charter needs. It also channels its expertise and experience into the creation of game-changing technology solutions designed specifically for business aviation.
